Reflection

We all have flaws and weaknesses, yet our world often pressures us to hide them in pursuit of perfection.

As Leonard Cohen reminds us,

"There is a crack in everything. That's how the light gets in."

We need not fear our cracks or imperfections.
In God's hands, even our weaknesses can become a source of beauty and blessing.

Rather than hiding our flaws, let us embrace them and allow God's light to shine through, reminding us that nothing is ever wasted in His great love.
